BOSTON'S EVENT + DESTINATION MANAGEMENT SOLUTION

"Thank you again for helping us hit a home run with our ASAE & The Center client event. The unique experience that you created at Fenway Park was another outstanding example of how your team supports the Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau team and our mission."

President & CEO, Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau

"The team at NXTevent really seems to understand what a meeting and event planners want when they come to Boston. Your team listens to our customers and responds with a creative and cost efficient plan that always exceeds the customer's expectations. Your extensive experience planning and executing events in Boston makes the NXTevent team a valuable resource to our team and our customers."

Vice President of Sales, Advantage BOSTON, Boston Convention Marketing Center

"Absolutely fantastic! I have been producing shows all over the globe for the past 25 years and I can honestly say that I have never dealt with a more professional and caring company. Your pre-production and execution, across land mass, oceans and time zones was incredibly detailed. However, it was all of the small and thoughtful touches that made our experience unique. With all of the thousands of elements that could go wrong, not one thing did. We LOVE Boston, we ADORE NXTevent!"

Senior Event Producer, CiEvents

"Your attention to every detail (no matter how small) certainly showed in the finished product ... your flexibility, professionalism, and accuracy sets the standard in the meetings industry. Thanks again and we look forward to working with you on our NXTevent."

Meeting Planner, GlaxoSmithKline

"NXTevent continuously stepped up to the plate for our pharmaceutical client, not only handling each of the changes, but also handling them with smiling faces. Your flexibility, professionalism and accuracy sets the standard in the meetings industry. When Boston is again a preferred destination for any of our programs, you can rest assured that NXTevent will be our first call."

Senior Executive, Plan On It

"I have a special events planner that I work with on a regular basis and really wanted to work with in Boston. However your proposal for services was so packed with value that it became clear that working with NXTevent in Boston was in our best business interest. Thank you for your extremely hard work to make our program successful."

Director, Meetings and Events, VHA

"No matter what I throw at NXTevent, they seem to somehow come up with a winner each and every time. The ideas I give them are so esoteric, yet NXTevent returns proposals that are exactly what I pictured in my head and the final venue is always top-notch and "talked about" for years after! Kudo's to Ally and her team!"

Sharp Electronics

"NXTevent consistently provided clear communication and updates throughout the contracting, planning, and event execution process. On-site staff met with WorldatWork daily to review the details of each day's events. No challenge was beyond reach. Every request was tackled with passion and desire to deliver the ultimate best for WorldatWork."

Managing Director, Events, WorldatWork

"Whenever a group departs from its usual special event, there are naysayers who question the wisdom of doing something totally different from the norm. NXTevent did a great deal to assist in quieting the fears of those individuals, and we are grateful for your careful planning and support."
